- 19.3 The Purchase Order (including these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase) and the Additional Terms (if any) shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to its respective subject matter, and replaces and extinguishes all prior agreements, draft agreements, arrangements, undertakings or collateral contracts of any nature made by the Parties, whether oral or written, in relation to such subject matter. The rights, powers and remedies provided in these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase to Buyer are (except as expressly provided) cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers and remedies provided by applicable law, or otherwise.
- 19.4 Except where provided in these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase (in particular, the references to Buyer's Affiliates) to the contrary, a person who is not a Party to the Agreements may not enforce any of their provisions under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999. Any right granted to a Buyer's Affiliate may be enforced directly against the Supplier by that Buyer's Affiliate. The consent of any Buyer's Affiliate or any other third party is not necessary for any variation (including any release or compromise in whole or in part of any liability) or termination of the Agreement, any Purchase Order or any one or more Conditions of these General Terms and Conditions of Purchase.
- 19.5 If any provision, or part of a provision, of the Agreement is found by any court or authority of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall be deemed not to form part of the Agreements and the legality, validity or enforceability of the remainder of the provisions of the Agreement shall not be affected, unless otherwise stipulated under applicable law.
- 20. GOVERNING LAW AND ARBITRATION
- 20.1 The Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with all or part of the Agreement or its subject matter or formation (including any dispute or claim relating to non-contractual obligations) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.
- 20.2 The Parties agree that if there is any dispute arising in connection with the Agreement, the Parties shall first attempt to resolve the dispute by negotiation. If the Parties are unable to resolve any such dispute within 45 days of commencing negotiations, such dispute may be referred by either Party to and finally resolved by arbitration under the London Maritime Arbitrators Association ("LMAA") terms current at the time when the arbitration proceedings are commenced, except that where neither the claim nor any counterclaim exceeds the sum of US$50,000 the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the LMAA Small Claims Procedure. The number of arbitrators shall be three, except that the reference shall be to one sole arbitrator where the LMAA Small Claims Procedure applies. The seat, or legal place, of the arbitration shall be London, England. The language to be used in the arbitration shall be English. Nothing stated in this Condition shall preclude the right of either Party to seek security or interim orders from any court of competent jurisdiction as may be necessary.
